

And The Defense Wins

William S. Kronenberg

On April 27, 2021, Will Kronenberg received a unanimous defense verdict in the first jury trial for Kronenberg Law since the pandemic hit in March 2020. Sheffield Lubricants, LLC. v Plant Process Equipment, Inc., was filed in the United States District Court for the District of Arizona, and proceeded to trial by jury on April 19, 2021. The case involved a business dispute with competing claims for breach of contract following the design and construction of an oil refinery in Case Grande Az. by defendant Plant Process. Sheffield claimed that the design and construction were defective, and sued for breach of contract and related lost profits totaling in excess of $36 million. Will Kronenberg was retained in February 2021, two months before trial, to step in as lead trial counsel. On April 26, 2021, after two hours of deliberation, the jury returned a unanimous defense verdict on Sheffield's claims, and awarded Plant Process the unpaid balance on its contract. Following the verdict Plant Process has filed a motion for the recovery of its attorneys fees, interest and post-trial costs.

Will Kronenberg is often retained in cases in California and throughout the U.S. prior to trial to serve as lead trial counsel. He has tried cases to verdict in both Federal and State courts throughout California, as well as in Montana, South Carolina, Texas and Arizona. Kronenberg Law specializes in the defense of catastrophic injury, wrongful death, sexual abuse and professional liability cases, as well as business disputes.
